Thanks to everyone who have been reading the first 7 published "Nan" stories here on Fictionaut. I really appreciate it and I hope you've been enjoying them.

I've recently released the entire collection--all 10 stories--as an ebook on iTunes, Amazon, and B&N. I'm currently in the process of designing a print version--a limited run of first edition hardcovers--which I'm hoping to have ready by next month.

Here is a link to the Nan page on the Harmon Blunt Publishers site, with information about the book, blurbs, and links to buy the ebook. It's priced at a very reasonable $6.99.

Thanks again for all your interest and support.

Sincerely,
Nathaniel Bellows
