with and without absent lines

by strannikov

Across the vacant vanished

   sounds our ears erased

   Silences subtracting sense

   secrets never kept

   Truths allowed to die from days

   minute efforts made

   Metal-birthed fatigues stretched taut

   lies too quick believed

   Lick that pollen off your coat

   vacancies of old
