

~blackbird~

by aksania xenogrette

through a busted window
in this desert house morning light hits a picture-frame hanging from a wire
coughing dust
like a blackbird
caught in a snare
it pulses
so softly
the bird's
dead melody
dives inside it
like a womb
