

AND I WILL REMAIN AS CAUTIOUS AS EVER

by Amanda Deo

We're on the phone dead battery & I want this to last forever. The last thing I want to do is make decisions. Every time I see the ocean I wonder why we live in the city. We were on the front lines of it never happened. I want to stay staring at the stars below & if what you say is true & in your ear is the greatest whisper.

We're somewhere that a cover should be.
