Off Shoots

by Anne Brudevold

My name is Lassie. Derived from Eleaza. That means god is supposed to help And he does. I enjoy a balanced diet, and fun training sessions. On the TV set I rescue people with whom I share a scent bond, mostly my boy owner. I have ESP. At his house I am loved for my guard dog bristling usefulness. After the show, my handler brushes my time comsuming hair. I'm spoiled rotten. When I sleep, I lick blood from the lion I killed in the Sahara. Let's admit it. Blood is blood and I like blood. I have generated many popular TV crime series.
