

headaches not worth having

by Anthony M. Powers

this is one of those
"there are two kinds of people"
sort of things.

some people
never
stop
talking,
while others
never say much
at all.

when you decide
to become the latter
let me know.

but if you never
make that choice
then please
at your soonest
possible
convenience,
lose my fucking number.
