

God's Vial

by Bill Yarrow

The poor sup from the Tanzanite vial of God and are reconfigured for accomplishment

The disaffected sip from the Amorite vial of God and are redecorated with badges of false corduroy

The disoriented stare at the Bakelite vial of God and rewitness the bloody crucifixion of money

The holy tear at God's Levirate vial and are redispersed to contiguous evisceration

The porous bear the anchorite's vial atop columns of luminous insolvency

The fractured fashion an anthracite vial in violation of inviolate autonomy

God reconnoiters the limits of Hell amid cries of insuperable ecstasy
