

glass

by Carl Santoro

He was seven.

He was suspicious of glass.

How can you see through a solid object?

Why this solid object?

The adults don't seem to care.

My sister is pressing her nose

on the window.

She laughs and licks it.

I'm scared.

He was suspicious of glass.

He was seven.

