

gravelortian part 16

by Chad Smith

Merciful father in heaven
Only holding my breath this one last time
Tears brought forth for moments like this Hear the cry of those who don't call Endear the little ones to us who suffer the Righteousness for righteousness sake

Forgive us this day our daily bread
Understanding those who don't understand us
Courage gathered up to weather the storm
Keep us from harming ourselves, allowing us to Endure from the other side of the fence
Reading the bible backwards and loud
