gravelortian part 9

by Chad Smith

She guessed kidneys

The computer and the robot confirmed

Some kind of failure

Constant pissing couldn't make it outside in time

Pissed on the bed

Pissed on the couch

Pissed on the floor

Pissed on the important papers

Puddles pooling

Taking a piss and giving a shit

Saying it's inevitable is just another form of loser talk

All you can hope for is someone to clean up after

And someone to clean up after you

It's pouring outside

Unhook the newsfeed

Pull the plug

Get turned off

Silence your phone

Take an ax to the machines

See the robot run away with the spoon

Connect the borrowed jumper cables and shock it awake a few more times

Drive until you run out of gas

Coast off the road and into the embankment

Pull the mud and leaves up over you and take a rest

Dad dad dad

When I wake up from today's night

I will go back and find him sleeping in the wagon

That will go on here like that

That will be cool I guess
