

002

by Christopher Novas

there are nights when you're all alone in the dark
where the only light is the glow of the computer screen and words can't seem the scratch the surface of your skull and bit by bit
the sentences, phrases, and letters attached to your synapses drown
in your subconscious
