

Farming, A Handbook (for Wendell Berry)

by Ed Higgins

out here the land
speaks in Quaker silence

fertile soil enfolds
the nourished seed

like a feral lover

the wind & rain
bequeath their song

the sun too draws
into the quiet story

of germ, generation
bittersweet and sweet

times of harvest.

