

The Third Leading Cause

by Emily Sparkles

I leave the 29
to go after the 1
to walk to the counselor
to have the conversation to ask the have-you questions to call the parents
to walk back
to class
to choke down tears
to put on a happy face
to go back
to teach the 29.
