Half Staff

by Gary Hardaway

The flags fly at half staff everyday to recognize whatever tragic deaths are most recent. We mourn in perpetuity and are inured to our mourning every morning as we once again soldier on through the profits of loss.