

Hyde Confronts Jekyll's Position on a Current Affair

by Gary Hardaway

Jekyll would seek to sit and reason with the twits strutting self-righteously outside Planned Parenthood.
They carry the usual, inflammatory, dumbfuck photos of fetuses and crude placards urging “de-funbing.”

Their spelling is atrocious. They are idiots.
I would fly drones with hydrochloric acid sprays over their squadrons and watch the disfigurement begin. I love disfigurement and the shrieks of stupid human pain they liberate through the air like dissonant songs. Jekyll wants progress through reason and persuasion. I just want to punish passionate shit bags who piss me off.
