It Isn't Personal. It's Business

by Gary Hardaway

Contract

It matters to you so it matters to me because you pay for it to matter to me.

Executive Decisions

You bought the magic beans offered by consultants and software vendors and still-- no vine work up to realms of gold and singing harps. You have but a few handfuls of shriveled beans and a field choked by virulent vines.

Consensus

A dozen assholes in a boardroom can decide an action that will fuck the rest of us over to their benefit in the time it takes a cup of coffee to cool.
