

they came to explain the wind

by Jeff Swanson

they came to explain the wind
and wound up controlling zombies when the art of our own lives follows only our eccentric purpose then the son of the silent form sends a winger to the million mail and minister furley makes himself a nitwit sandwich

