Dreams That Sorrow Owns

by Jerry Ratch

Maybe tomorrow someone dreams And maybe someone moans But beware the steam inside the dome It's just dreams that sorrow owns

If it resonates, say so Ho in a raccoon coat Slow bum ahead If it resonates, say so, say so

And her man, yo He sure can play piano With those giant lobster hands If it resonates, say so

When words were first born You know, they were like Pure prayer, but now They're just dreams that sorrow owns
