

Get a Hold of God, Will You?

by Jerry Ratch

Get a hold of God, will you?
I have seen a lot

I saw a Great Dane
licking the dew off an orange bird of paradise

Get a hold of God
and tell him that Get a hold of God
and give him a piece of my mind
I have a lot to say

Humor is only slightly overrated
I teach nothing and preach less There's a whole lot of Bogascity out there Total Bogascity!

Also NPR really stands for

National Puppet Radio
if you must know

Don't tell me I'm beautiful It's better to beg for forgiveness than to ask for permission They tell me
you'll miss your destiny
if you are shy

I've got adventure ass
I've got okay
snake
I've got monkeys climbing
everywhere
I've got a trigger without a hair
and I once wrote a song called
"Hail To the Chef!"

Get thee to Goose Bump City You'll live a long life
there

Tell God to come on down to the used car lot of life and take a look He may be just as surprised as we are

Get a hold of God
because you've got to Because if not you

then who?
