Get a Hold of God, Will You?

by Jerry Ratch

Get a hold of God, will you? I have seen a lot

I saw a Great Dane licking the dew off an orange bird of paradise

Get a hold of God and tell him that Get a hold of God and give him a piece of my mind I have a lot to say

Humor is only slightly overrated I teach nothing and preach less There's a whole lot of Bogascity out there Total Bogascity!

Also NPR really stands for

Don't tell me I'm beautiful It's better to beg for forgiveness than to ask for permission They tell me you'll miss your destiny if you are shy

I've got adventure ass I've got okay snake I've got monkeys climbing everywhere I've got a trigger without a hair and I once wrote a song called "Hail To the Chef!"

Get thee to Goose Bump City You'll live a long life there

Tell God to come on down to the used car lot of life and take a look He may be just as surprised as we are

Get a hold of God because you've got to Because if not you then who?
