

I Heard You Like the Back Seat Too, Honey: Song

by Jerry Ratch

They met at a bar
They didn't get far
They went to her car
Then back to the bar

He played guitar
She was a rock star
They met at a bar
They didn't get far

Well, I heard you liked the back seat too, Honey
I heard that you liked to hear me coo
Well, I was just like you
But then I started feeling kinda funny

And I pulled my own heart apart
Sniffing at its neck like you used to do
And now I don't know anymore
If I should just forget about you

I heard that you still wanted
To be my pet
And you asked if I ever remembered about us
Well, you bet. How could I forget?

They met at a bar
They didn't get far
They went to her car

Then back to the bar

He played guitar
She was a rock star
They met at a bar
They didn't get far

And I remember what you told me once
Once you get off the moon
It will be the end of lust
Forget the light, go toward the food

And I just wanted to tell you, I wanted to say
This is not the end of lust
This is just the beginning
In that you can trust

They met at a bar
They didn't get far
They went to her car
Then back to the bar

He played guitar
She was a rock star
They met at a bar
They didn't get far
