

I Love a Man Who Whistles

by Jerry Ratch

"Hey! You can't be whistling on Greyhound,"
the bus driver said,
looking up
in the rearview mirror.

And another time
in my freshman dorms,
someone shouted:
"Hey, cut out that infernal whistling all the time!"

But then I remember one time out of nowhere at a café, a woman came up to me and said,
"I love a man who whistles."
And this made my life complete.
