

Pleasant Wandering After Great Lust

by Jerry Ratch

Good pussies remember all cataclysmic activity.
Cataclysm was a bustling city right across the river from Orgasm.

Sir Real lived there a long, long time ago in a thatched hut that was burned down during the Great Fires of 1666, and 1966 as well.

People used to smoke pot then.
They don't anymore, because that would be illegal.
And practically nobody wants to do anything illegal.
It's just not proper.
