

Resolution

by Jerry Ratch

You say you want a resolution
Well, I got one
Let's start with nothing at all
No logic, no war, no whiskey or bombs
No atomic gunpowder

Let's resolve:
No religions
No institutions
No rulers or bums
No tornado
No earthquakes or floods

No spitting
No whining
No shit

Let's sit down on the ground
In the sunlight
And play dice
No money
No chairs
Nothing between us

And whoever wins
Is God
