

Shining Against Each Other

by Jerry Ratch

They keep shining
against each other
in the paintings
The women
the men
passing
by Couples strolling
along the avenues Watch their faces
as they blend
into
the future
Sitting beside each other
in cafés
Put their bones
together
Their broad
features
