

Sitting On a Powder Keg - song

by Jerry Ratch

I just sit here thinking
You're cheating on me again
It's how you acted last time
The same as it's ever been

Don't wanna go ballistic
What's inside your head?
Why don't you just tell me
Who's been sleeping in that bed

I know that I've been sitting
On a powder keg all night
You ain't been acting normal
You ain't been acting right

I know I been sitting
On a powder keg all night
I'm ready to explode
I'm ready for a fight
Yeah, I'm ready to explode
And I'm ready for a fight

You don't want me to be
The first one to explode
But it could really happen
Cause I'm carrying a heavy load

I know what you been doing
Can't you tell me why?

I know that you been messing around
With some other guy

I know that I've been sitting
On a powder keg all night
You ain't been acting normal
You ain't been acting right

I know that I been sitting
On a powder keg all night
I'm ready to explode
I'm ready for a fight
Yeah, I'm ready to explode
And I'm ready for a fight

I know that I been sitting
On a powder keg all night
