

So, Good

by Jerry Ratch

It's good to get fucked in the rain.

It's good to get fucked in the back seat of a power boat on a river in the hot summer air with the mosquitos sucking the life out of you.

It's good to get fucked with your bare back rubbing up against the rough bark on a tree in a Wisconsin state park with only a raccoon watching you after eating all your cat food from the bumper of your car.

It's good to get fucked on your knees.

It's good to get fucked bent over smelling a flower in the garden at night with your panties yanked down around your ankles.

But it's great to get fucked on your back in bed with your legs stirring up the air behind your lover. And it's wonderful to see your soul floating up near the ceiling when you leave your body and come alive like that for the first time.
