

The Tote Bag Song

by Jerry Ratch

You can ask so many questions
Of what's it all about
You can empty out the closets
And roll the mothballs out

But no one has the answers
It's all a mystery
There's a bigger picture
But it's really hard to see

Then it all comes down to a tote bag
That's what it's all about
A few knick-knacks, mementos
And a coat turned inside out
It all comes down to a tote bag
That's what it's all about

They'll toss out all your stuff
Nothing left no more
It really does get tough
No need to win or score

Why are we on this planet?
It's going down the slippery slope
That's made of mud and granite
And runs you out of hope

Then it all comes down to a tote bag
That's what it's all about
A few knick-knacks, mementos
And a coat turned inside out
It all comes down to a tote bag

That's what it's all about

You can ride into the sunset
On your horse or truck or car
Ask the universe deep questions
But you really won't get far

'Cause it all comes down to a tote bag
That's what it's all about
A few knick-knacks, mementos
And a coat turned inside out

It all comes down to a tote bag
That's what it's all about
Yeah, it all comes down to a tote bag
That's what it's all about
