

You Can Keep the Keys: Song

by Jerry Ratch

Here's the keys to the house
Here's the keys to the car
I'm going out and I don't care
I'm going out to buy a cigar

Don't bother locking up after I leave
I'm not coming back anymore
I'm going to drink whiskey out of a jar

Go out and buy me a fat cigar

Because I don't care anymore
You can drive the car
You'll be richer without me
You'll be richer by far

Here's the keys to the house
Here's the keys to the car
I'm so out of here
I'm off to look at the stars

I'm going to drink whiskey from a jar
And smoke a fat old cigar
Cause I don't care anymore
You can keep the car

You can keep the keys
You can keep the car as well

I don't really care
If you want to go to hell
