

Abandoned

by Johnny Dantonio

How could you run from me now?

The loneliest child in the house

The loneliest child in the house

Don't let me out

Don't let me out

Come to me Calvary Hill

I'm breathing and sleeping, but still

I'm seeping inside of a dungeon house

This noose —

This noose could kill

Counting repetitive days

I'm breathing, outside it rains

You stuck me inside of this cage

Alone I am

I am displacing

Come to me, no matter how gray

For I'm the ugliest brain

For I'm the loneliest brain

The progeny of wrath

The reckless waste.
