

Music

by Mark Waldrop

At work I listen to music
recorded from live performances.
People cheer in the music and I can hear their smiles
they are excited.

    I smile with them and I imagine they are happy for me.

I see them beyond my grey office walls

    I imagine they are my friends and family. They are my boss—so excited about the reports I've finished.
