

Uniquer Than Thou

by Mathew Paust

The black tranny biker neon-blue-eyed eloquent acclaimed-poet bank executive

Democratic presidential contender sneers covertly at practically everyone else on the planet until confronting another secretly sneering black tranny biker eloquent acclaimed-poet bank executive Democratic contender but with brilliant green eyes each immediately sweats and has heart palpitations and conceals a kaleidoscope of murderous thoughts behind facades of cautious amity wishing to keep all options open while alert to the possibility the one iris pigment proves more camera friendly than the other

Why can't we all just get along police victim Rodney King injected into the ages of human aspiration

Is it safe to presume Rodney King's eyes were brown?
