

lime shed

by Rene Foran

if i could
i would build a lime shed filled with useful nonsense and bungee cords
because, fuck yeah
bungee cords
    upon entering
you would be directed to the southwest corner met by the eye and
greeted warmly
with a double pump
wonderful, wonderful
handshake
    from there
you'd be asked to remove all doubt
ignorance
and blue eyeshadow
placing them gently
but firmly
directly
into a galvanized bucket where they would be hoisted by a series of pulleys
into the loins
of a morbidly obese
televangelist
for purely fun,
humane, scientific,
old time religious
experimentation

could i trouble you
for a moment of your crime?
if I could sign you up
delightful!
if not now
some other time
