

randy the ram

by Rene Foran

what it all once was, always is for you i bring the circus reinvent the shine
just light reflecting off the hook spinning round and round coming going
rammed, jammed
but i always find a way
off the line
someday it'll be enough
but not yet
and what you see now
is all that you'll know
