

Any migration is forced

by Sara Fitzpatrick Comito

Gravity's not downward but a pull between. If you're bigger than me, I'm gonna come to you just how it works. Don't mind the plastic caddy of Lysols, my multigrain will replace your white inflammation.

Let's put some shades over the bare hanging. I'm not going to change you I promise: I'll wait up.

Any migration is forced.
Diaspora is how I show I care. Remember: I'm the one who had to assimilate.

It's what was best. For you.
