

Lord Savior Google

by Shawn Misener

Our Lord Savior Google
knows the answers before the questions are posed give thanks to the Lord for he shall provide as long as there is electricity and a wireless router

the art of asking questions is near obsolete-Lord Savior Google shall swoop in and rescue the clueless are you a worthy mate or are you not? what percentage of your soul is relentlessly hipster?

will lead you down the path to addiction support groups and people who fuck horses

Jehovah was a judgmental bastard in his heyday
and a purveyor of sick jokes

answers prayers without prejudice and leaves the self-hatred up to you

The secret of life is a stick of butter in the dark melting at just the thought of it
