

Six Feet Over

by Shawn Misener

turn the skyscrapers
upside down
to poke the earth
like dirty syringes
    watch the worms
take to the air

    I want my money back:
nobody told me outer space was a bad investment please strap me loosely into my suit and let me dig-dug underground for aliens

    I want to see what the beautiful women look like when their nails are caked with dirt I've paid my dues in this dimension so show me where the rest of them are
