

Event Particle (9)

by stephen hastings-king

Beyond the composition of wooden geometrical forms, leaves, starlings and other words fall into thickets of orange or green grasses or tendrils or snakes through trees like baseball gloves of wire that catch and condense the signals that radiate throughout the environment and an everywhere fog, rectangle inside a rectangle, splinters continuity into planes.

