

Snuggie your Life Away

by Teresa Houle

Who is the moron that invented the Snuggie?

It's a fleece-tent with sleeves,

I thought they were kidding me.

Is our society so torpid?

Yet, bursting with cash?

That we will buy anything,

That warms our white ass?

The new designs are out;

I can look like a zebra

While I flick my clicker

And watch some more Oprah.

And don't get me started on Snuggie for dogs,

Anyone who buys that deserves to be flogged.
