

If I Felt

by Tim G. Young

If I felt like reading a book then I would read a book If I felt like looking out the window then I would look out
If I felt like...
If I felt
If I felt
and then the list would just go on and on I'd become exhausted from all the things I felt like doing if indeed I actually felt like doing all those things

If I felt like dropping the top on my convertible to let the wind tangle my hair
If I felt like writing
If I felt
for one million
times
If I felt
If I felt
but what attention would be paid after so huge a list of the If I felt

I really can't do it
oh I could really do it but I really can't do it
so don't worry about it
don't think about it
if

I can't continue on such a sophomoric effort* * *

Its like Take me Out to the Ballgame
you could sing it
you know the melody
but who is going to take you to the ball game
Who
Who Who Who

oh I could do it
if
I can't continue on such a
silly ride

Who's pitching anyway
who has the ball
who's on first
who made the joke
who said I felt like it
If I felt
cause after a while FELT begins to look
a little weird
like those four letters
are meaningless
ice cream topped with a cherry
melting into dark demons sprinkled with jimmies
colored by the stars on

a lonely road

if
I can't continue
If I felt
