

Dirty Mother For Ya, a response to Memphis Minnie, with a little help from Roosevelt Sykes and Blind Boy Fuller on Mothers Day

by Walter Bjorkman

I don't want you comin by no courthouse talkin' to no judge I don't want you comin round my work fallin' on my floor

Just stay at home woman, and do your job wash those dishes, mama, its what I pays you for think you be like me, woman, you know you're not that good its why I goes out an tear up the neighborhood

If I goes out an gets drunk, even as early as noon don' want you comin' round the barroom, just get back home woman, take care a the kids cause if you don't do it, dirty mama, you don't think I would

You got one use woman, only one thing for me for sure after you get washed up from scrubbin that dirty floor yeah I'm a dirty mother for ya, and though I roam I'll be home soon, drip my honey in your honeycomb

So, hurry back home, mama, an be what I want you to be yeah, hurry back home, mama, an be what I want you to be just be the pigmeat woman of mine that's all, ya see cause, yaz, I'm a dirty mother for ya, you just the queen bee
